MidAtlantic Festival

2014 marks a change of venue for the upcoming MidAtlantic Bonsai Festival, returning to East Hanover, New Jersey, and the Ramada Hotel. Room rates have been discounted for the Festival. The Members' Exhibit will be located in a new area with more room for the displays than the former display rooms. The vending area is large and will be full of bonsai related sales items.

Workshops will again precede the rest of the weekend's activities being held on Friday afternoon. Friday evening will feature the first of the festival's demonstrations along with the hospitality suite.

Saturday is a busy day featuring lecture/demonstrations, the members' exhibit, silent auctions, bonsai raffles, bonsai critiques, a banquet, and ending with a live auction.

Sundays activities include more bonsai lecture demonstrations and raffles.

Be sure to mark April 25-27 on your bonsai calendar for the 2014 MidAtlantic Spring Festival. This year a fantastic group of national and international artists will be showcased. Takashi Iura, from Japan, will headline this notable group, while from the United Kingdom, Corin Tomlinson, a second generation bonsai artist will demonstrate his bonsai skills, and from the United States, Suthin Sukosolvisit, who is very well known for his detailed masterpieces, will round out the slate of artists.

This is a great bonsai weekend and a great value! Forms will be distributed at the January meeting. If you are not coming to the meeting, let Pauline know and she will mail you a form. Remember first timers get in for half price!

MANY THANKS TO THE Officers OF MHBS 2013
ESPECIALLY AS THEY ARE REMAINING ON DUTY IN 2014
